

SUBCOMMITTEE: CIVIL

HOUSE BILL NO. 880

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice on _____)

(Patron Prior to Substitute--Simonds)

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-253.1, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.9, and 19.2-152.10 of the Code of Virginia, relating to protective orders; motions to dissolve filed by petitioner; ex parte hearing and issuance of order.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 16.1-253.1, 16.1-279.1, 19.2-152.9, and 19.2-152.10 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-253.1. Preliminary protective orders in cases of family abuse; confidentiality.

A. Upon the filing of a petition alleging that the petitioner is or has been, within a reasonable period of time, subjected to family abuse, the court may issue a preliminary protective order against an allegedly abusing person in order to protect the health and safety of the petitioner or any family or household member of the petitioner. The order may be issued in an ex parte proceeding upon good cause shown when the petition is supported by an affidavit or sworn testimony before the judge or intake officer. If an ex parte order is issued without an affidavit or a completed form as prescribed by subsection D of § 16.1-253.4 being presented, the court, in its order, shall state the basis upon which the order was entered, including a summary of the allegations made and the court's findings. Immediate and present danger of family abuse or evidence sufficient to establish probable cause that family abuse has recently occurred shall constitute good cause. Evidence that the petitioner has been subjected to family abuse within a reasonable time and evidence of immediate and present danger of family abuse may be established by a showing that (i) the allegedly abusing person is incarcerated and is to be released from incarceration within 30 days following the petition or has been released from incarceration within 30 days prior to the petition, (ii) the crime for which the allegedly abusing person was convicted and incarcerated involved family abuse against the petitioner, and (iii) the allegedly abusing person has made threatening contact with the petitioner while he was incarcerated, exhibiting a renewed threat to the petitioner of family abuse.

A preliminary protective order may include any one or more of the following conditions to be imposed on the allegedly abusing person:

1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse or criminal offenses that result in injury to person or property.
2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or family or household members of the petitioner as the court deems necessary for the health or safety of such persons.
3. Granting the petitioner possession of the premises occupied by the parties to the exclusion of the allegedly abusing person; however, no such grant of possession shall affect title to any real or personal property.
4. Enjoining the respondent from terminating any necessary utility service to a premises that the petitioner has been granted possession of pursuant to subdivision 3 or, where appropriate, ordering the respondent to restore utility services to such premises.
5. Granting the petitioner and, where appropriate, any other family or household member of the petitioner, exclusive use and possession of a cellular telephone number or electronic device. The court may enjoin the respondent from terminating a cellular telephone number or electronic device before the expiration of the contract term with a third-party provider. The court may enjoin the respondent from using a cellular telephone or other electronic device to locate the petitioner.
6. Granting the petitioner temporary possession or use of a motor vehicle owned by the petitioner alone or jointly owned by the parties to the exclusion of the allegedly abusing person; however, no such grant of possession or use shall affect title to the vehicle.
7. Requiring that the allegedly abusing person provide suitable alternative housing for the petitioner and any other family or household member and, where appropriate, requiring the respondent to pay deposits to connect or restore necessary utility services in the alternative housing provided.
8. Granting the petitioner the possession of any companion animal as defined in § 3.2-6500 if such petitioner meets the definition of owner in § 3.2-6500.

53 9. Any other relief necessary for the protection of the petitioner and family or household members
54 of the petitioner.

55 B. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the 56 order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the 57 respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person
58 provided to the court. A copy of a preliminary protective order containing any such identifying information 59 shall be forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of 60 protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall 61 forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other
62 appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information
63 Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52
64 and the order shall be served forthwith on the allegedly abusing person in person as provided in § 16.1-65 264 and due return made to the court. However, if the order is issued by the circuit court, the clerk of the 66 circuit court shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order containing the respondent's identifying 67 information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court to 68 the primary law-enforcement agency providing service and entry of protective orders and upon receipt of
69 the order, the primary law-enforcement agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and
70 other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal
71 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 72 seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith on the allegedly abusing person in person as 73 provided in § 16.1-264. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service
74 and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal 75 Information Network and make due return to the court. The preliminary order shall specify a date for the 76 full hearing. The hearing shall be held within 15 days of the issuance of the preliminary order, unless the 77 court is closed pursuant to § 16.1-69.35 or 17.1-207 and such closure prevents the hearing from being held 78 within such time period, in which case the hearing shall be held on the next day not a Saturday, Sunday, 79 legal holiday, or day on which the court is lawfully closed. If such court is closed pursuant to § 16.1-69.35 or 17.1-207, the preliminary protective order shall remain in full force and effect until it is dissolved by such court, until another preliminary protective order is entered, or until a protective order is entered. If the respondent fails to appear at this hearing because the respondent was not personally served, or if personally served was incarcerated and not transported to the hearing, the court may extend the protective order for a period not to exceed six months. The extended protective order shall be served forthwith on the respondent. However, upon motion of the respondent and for good cause shown, the court may continue the hearing. The preliminary order shall remain in effect until the hearing. Upon request after the order is issued, the clerk shall provide the petitioner with a copy of the order and information regarding the date and time of service. The order shall further specify that either party may at any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order. The hearing on the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. Upon petitioner's motion to dissolve the preliminary protective order, a dissolution order may be issued ex parte by the court with or without a hearing. If an ex parte hearing is held, it shall be heard by the court as soon as practicable. If a dissolution order is issued ex parte, the court shall serve a copy of such dissolution order on respondent in conformity with §§ 8.01-286.1 and 8.01-296.

Upon receipt of the return of service or other proof of service pursuant to subsection C of § 16.1-264, the clerk shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the preliminary protective order to the primary law-enforcement agency, and the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

C. The preliminary order is effective upon personal service on the allegedly abusing person. Except as otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 16.1-279.1 if the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation of family abuse by a preponderance of the evidence.

E. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court, (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

F. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

G. No fee shall be charged for filing or serving any petition or order pursuant to this section.

H. Upon issuance of a preliminary protective order, the clerk of the court shall make available to the petitioner information that is published by the Department of Criminal Justice Services for victims of domestic violence or for petitioners in protective order cases.

§ 16.1-279.1. Protective order in cases of family abuse.

A. In cases of family abuse, including any case involving an incarcerated or recently incarcerated respondent against whom a preliminary protective order has been issued pursuant to § 16.1-253.1, the court may issue a protective order to protect the health and safety of the petitioner and family or household members of the petitioner. A protective order issued under this section may include any one or more of the following conditions to be imposed on the respondent:

1. Prohibiting acts of family abuse or criminal offenses that result in injury to person or property;
2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or family or household members of the petitioner as the court deems necessary for the health or safety of such persons;
3. Granting the petitioner possession of the residence occupied by the parties to the exclusion of the respondent; however, no such grant of possession shall affect title to any real or personal property;
4. Enjoining the respondent from terminating any necessary utility service to the residence to which the petitioner was granted possession pursuant to subdivision 3 or, where appropriate, ordering the respondent to restore utility services to that residence;

134 5. Granting the petitioner and, where appropriate, any other family or household member of the 135 petitioner, exclusive use and possession of a cellular telephone number or electronic device. The court 136 may enjoin the respondent from terminating a cellular telephone number or electronic device before the 137 expiration of the contract term with a third-party provider. The court may enjoin the respondent from 138 using a cellular telephone or other electronic device to locate the petitioner;

139 6. Granting the petitioner temporary possession or use of a motor vehicle owned by the petitioner
140 alone or jointly owned by the parties to the exclusion of the respondent and enjoining the respondent from 141 terminating any insurance, registration, or taxes on the motor vehicle and directing the respondent to 142 maintain the insurance, registration, and taxes, as appropriate; however, no such grant of possession or 143 use shall affect title to the vehicle;

144 7. Requiring that the respondent provide suitable alternative housing for the petitioner and, if 145 appropriate, any other family or household member and where appropriate, requiring the respondent to 146 pay deposits to connect or restore necessary utility services in the alternative housing provided;

147 8. Ordering the respondent to participate in treatment, counseling or other programs as the court
148 deems appropriate;

149 9. Granting the petitioner the possession of any companion animal as defined in § 3.2-6500 if such 150 petitioner meets the definition of owner in § 3.2-6500; and

151 10. Any other relief necessary for the protection of the petitioner and family or household members
152 of the petitioner, including a provision for temporary custody or visitation of a minor child.

153 A1. If a protective order is issued pursuant to subsection A, the court may also issue a temporary 154 child support order for the support of any children of the petitioner whom the respondent has a legal 155 obligation to support. Such order shall terminate upon the determination of support pursuant to § 20-108.1.

156 B. The protective order may be issued for a specified period of time up to a maximum of two years.
157 The protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of 158 the two-year period if no date is specified. Prior to the expiration of the protective order, a petitioner may 159 file a written motion requesting a hearing to extend the order. Proceedings to extend a protective order 160 shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. If the petitioner was a family or household member of the respondent at the time the initial protective order was issued, the court may extend the protective order for a period not longer than two years to protect the health and safety of the petitioner or persons who are family or household members of the petitioner at the time the request for an extension is made. The extension of the protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the two-year period if no date is specified. Nothing herein shall limit the number of extensions that may be requested or issued.

C. A copy of the protective order shall be served on the respondent and provided to the petitioner as soon as possible. The court, including a circuit court if the circuit court issued the order, shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court and shall forthwith forward the attested copy of the protective order containing any such identifying information to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith upon the respondent and due return made to the court. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

187 D. Except as otherwise provided in § 16.1-253.2, a violation of a protective order issued under this 188 section shall constitute contempt of court.

189 E. The court may assess costs and attorneys' fees against either party regardless of whether an 190 order of protection has been issued as a result of a full hearing.

191 F. Any judgment, order or decree, whether permanent or temporary, issued by a court of 192 appropriate jurisdiction in another state, the United States or any of its territories, possessions or 193 Commonwealths, the District of Columbia or by any tribal court of appropriate jurisdiction for the purpose
194 of preventing violent or threatening acts or harassment against or contact or communication with or 195 physical proximity to another person, including any of the conditions specified in subsection A, shall be 196 accorded full faith and credit and enforced in the Commonwealth as if it were an order of the 197 Commonwealth, provided reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given by the issuing
198 jurisdiction to the person against whom the order is sought to be enforced sufficient to protect such 199 person's due process rights and consistent with federal law. A person entitled to protection under such a 200 foreign order may file the order in any juvenile and domestic relations district court by filing with the 201 court an attested or exemplified copy of the order. Upon such a filing, the clerk shall forthwith forward an 202 attested copy of the order to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of 203 protective orders which shall, upon receipt, enter the name of the person subject to the order and other
204 appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information
205 Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title
206 52. Where practical, the court may transfer information electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information 207 Network.

208 Upon inquiry by any law-enforcement agency of the Commonwealth, the clerk shall make a copy
209 available of any foreign order filed with that court. A law-enforcement officer may, in the performance of 210 his duties, rely upon a copy of a foreign protective order or other suitable evidence which has been
211 provided to him by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by the order
212 that the order remains in effect.

G. Either party may at any time file a written motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order. Proceedings to dissolve or modify a protective order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. Upon petitioner's motion to dissolve the preliminary protective order, a dissolution order may be issued ex parte by the court with or without a hearing. If an ex parte hearing is held, it shall be heard by the court as soon as practicable. If a dissolution order is issued ex parte, the court shall serve a copy of such dissolution order on respondent in conformity with §§ 8.01-286.1 and 8.01-296.

H. As used in this section:

"Copy" includes a facsimile copy; and

"Protective order" includes an initial, modified or extended protective order.

I. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court, (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

J. No fee shall be charged for filing or serving any petition or order pursuant to this section.

K. Upon issuance of a protective order, the clerk of the court shall make available to the petitioner information that is published by the Department of Criminal Justice Services for victims of domestic violence or for petitioners in protective order cases.

§ 19.2-152.9. Preliminary protective orders.

A. Upon the filing of a petition alleging that (i) the petitioner is or has been, within a reasonable period of time, subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, or (ii) a petition or warrant has been issued for the arrest of the alleged perpetrator for any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat, the court may issue a preliminary protective order against the alleged perpetrator in order to protect the health and safety of the petitioner or any family or household member of the petitioner. The order may be issued in an ex parte proceeding upon good cause shown when the petition is supported by an affidavit or sworn testimony before the judge or intake officer. If an ex parte order is issued without an affidavit or a completed form as prescribed by subsection D of § 19.2-152.8

being presented, the court, in its order, shall state the basis upon which the order was entered, including a summary of the allegations made and the court's findings. Immediate and present danger of any act of violence, force, or threat or evidence sufficient to establish probable cause that an act of violence, force, or threat has recently occurred shall constitute good cause.

A preliminary protective order may include any one or more of the following conditions to be imposed on the respondent:

1. Prohibiting acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property;

2. Prohibiting such other contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner's family or household members as the court deems necessary for the health and safety of such persons;

3. Such other conditions as the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent; and

4. Granting the petitioner the possession of any companion animal as defined in § 3.2-6500 if such petitioner meets the definition of owner in § 3.2-6500.

B. The court shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court. A copy of a preliminary protective order containing any such identifying information shall be forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith on the alleged perpetrator in person as provided in § 16.1-264, and due return made to the court. However, if the order is issued by the circuit court, the clerk of the circuit court shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the order containing the respondent's identifying

267 information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court to
268 the primary law-enforcement agency providing service and entry of protective orders and upon receipt of 269 the order, the primary law-enforcement agency shall enter the name of the person subject to the order and
270 other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal
271 Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et 272 seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith on the alleged perpetrator in person as provided
273 in § 16.1-264. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other
274 appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information
275 Network and make due return to the court. The preliminary order shall specify a date for the full hearing.
276 The hearing shall be held within 15 days of the issuance of the preliminary order, unless the court is closed
277 pursuant to § 16.1-69.35 or 17.1-207 and such closure prevents the hearing from being held within such 278 time period, in which case the hearing shall be held on the next day not a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday,
279 or day on which the court is lawfully closed. If such court is closed pursuant to § 16.1-69.35 or 17.1-207,
280 the preliminary protective order shall remain in full force and effect until it is dissolved by such court,
281 until another preliminary protective order is entered, or until a protective order is entered. If the respondent 282 fails to appear at this hearing because the respondent was not personally served, the court may extend the 283 protective order for a period not to exceed six months. The extended protective order shall be served as 284 soon as possible on the respondent. However, upon motion of the respondent and for good cause shown,
285 the court may continue the hearing. The preliminary order shall remain in effect until the hearing. Upon 286 request after the order is issued, the clerk shall provide the petitioner with a copy of the order and 287 information regarding the date and time of service. The order shall further specify that either party may at 288 any time file a motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve or modify the order. The hearing on 289 the motion shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. Upon petitioner's motion to dissolve the 290 preliminary protective order, a dissolution order may be issued ex parte by the court with or without a 291 hearing. If an ex parte hearing is held, it shall be heard by the court as soon as practicable. If a dissolution
292 order is issued ex parte, the court shall serve a copy of such dissolution order on respondent in conformity 293 with §§ 8.01-286.1 and 8.01-296.

Upon receipt of the return of service or other proof of service pursuant to subsection C of § 16.1-264, the clerk shall forthwith forward an attested copy of the preliminary protective order to primary law-enforcement agency and the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

C. The preliminary order is effective upon personal service on the alleged perpetrator. Except as otherwise provided, a violation of the order shall constitute contempt of court.

D. At a full hearing on the petition, the court may issue a protective order pursuant to § 19.2-152.10 if the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegation that the petitioner is or has been, within a reasonable period of time, subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat by a preponderance of the evidence.

E. No fees shall be charged for filing or serving petitions pursuant to this section.

F. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court, (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

G. As used in this section, "copy" includes a facsimile copy.

H. Upon issuance of a preliminary protective order, the clerk of the court shall make available to the petitioner information that is published by the Department of Criminal Justice Services for victims of domestic violence or for petitioners in protective order cases.

§ 19.2-152.10. Protective order.

A. The court may issue a protective order pursuant to this chapter to protect the health and safety of the petitioner and family or household members of a petitioner upon (i) the issuance of a petition or warrant for, or a conviction of, any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat or (ii) a hearing held pursuant to subsection D of § 19.2-152.9. A protective order issued under this section may include any one or more of the following conditions to be imposed on the respondent:

1. Prohibiting acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property;

2. Prohibiting such contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or family or household members of the petitioner as the court deems necessary for the health or safety of such persons;

3. Any other relief necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent; and

4. Granting the petitioner the possession of any companion animal as defined in § 3.2-6500 if such petitioner meets the definition of owner in § 3.2-6500.

B. The protective order may be issued for a specified period of time up to a maximum of two years. The protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the two-year period if no date is specified. Prior to the expiration of the protective order, a petitioner may file a written motion requesting a hearing to extend the order. Proceedings to extend a protective order shall be given precedence on the docket of the court. The court may extend the protective order for a period not longer than two years to protect the health and safety of the petitioner or persons who are family or household members of the petitioner at the time the request for an extension is made. The extension of the protective order shall expire at 11:59 p.m. on the last day specified or at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of the two-year period if no date is specified. Nothing herein shall limit the number of extensions that may be requested or issued.

C. A copy of the protective order shall be served on the respondent and provided to the petitioner as soon as possible. The court, including a circuit court if the circuit court issued the order, shall forthwith, but in all cases no later than the end of the business day on which the order was issued, enter and transfer electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network the respondent's identifying information and the name, date of birth, sex, and race of each protected person provided to the court and shall forthwith forward the attested copy of the protective order and containing any such identifying information to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders. Upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52 and the order shall be served forthwith upon the respondent and due return made to the court. Upon service, the agency making service shall enter the date and time of service and other appropriate information required into the Virginia Criminal Information Network and make due return to the court. If the order is later dissolved or modified, a copy of the dissolution or modification order shall also be attested, forwarded forthwith to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders, and upon receipt of the order by the primary law-enforcement agency, the agency shall forthwith verify and enter any modification as necessary to the identifying information and other appropriate information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network as described above and the order shall be served forthwith and due return made to the court.

D. Except as otherwise provided, a violation of a protective order issued under this section shall constitute contempt of court.

E. The court may assess costs and attorneys' fees against either party regardless of whether an order of protection has been issued as a result of a full hearing.

F. Any judgment, order or decree, whether permanent or temporary, issued by a court of appropriate jurisdiction in another state, the United States or any of its territories, possessions or Commonwealths, the District of Columbia or by any tribal court of appropriate jurisdiction for the purpose of preventing violent or threatening acts or harassment against or contact or communication with or physical proximity to another person, including any of the conditions specified in subsection A, shall be

375 accorded full faith and credit and enforced in the Commonwealth as if it were an order of the
376 Commonwealth, provided reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given by the issuing
377 jurisdiction to the person against whom the order is sought to be enforced sufficient to protect such 378 person's due process rights and consistent with federal law. A person entitled to protection under such a 379 foreign order may file the order in any appropriate district court by filing with the court, an attested or 380 exemplified copy of the order. Upon such a filing, the clerk shall forthwith forward an attested copy of 381 the order to the primary law-enforcement agency responsible for service and entry of protective orders
382 which shall, upon receipt, enter the name of the person subject to the order and other appropriate
383 information required by the Department of State Police into the Virginia Criminal Information Network
384 established and maintained by the Department pursuant to Chapter 2 (§ 52-12 et seq.) of Title 52. Where 385 practical, the court may transfer information electronically to the Virginia Criminal Information Network.

386 Upon inquiry by any law-enforcement agency of the Commonwealth, the clerk shall make a copy
387 available of any foreign order filed with that court. A law-enforcement officer may, in the performance of 388 his duties, rely upon a copy of a foreign protective order or other suitable evidence which has been
389 provided to him by any source and may also rely upon the statement of any person protected by the order
390 that the order remains in effect.

391 G. Either party may at any time file a written motion with the court requesting a hearing to dissolve
392 or modify the order. Proceedings to modify or dissolve a protective order shall be given precedence on 393 the docket of the court. Upon petitioner's motion to dissolve the preliminary protective order, a dissolution 394 order may be issued ex parte by the court with or without a hearing. If an ex parte hearing is held, it shall 395 be heard by the court as soon as practicable. If a dissolution order is issued ex parte, the court shall serve 396 a copy of such dissolution order on respondent in conformity with §§ 8.01-286.1 and 8.01-296.

397 H. Neither a law-enforcement agency, the attorney for the Commonwealth, a court nor the clerk's 398 office, nor any employee of them, may disclose, except among themselves, the residential address, 399 telephone number, or place of employment of the person protected by the order or that of the family of 400 such person, except to the extent that disclosure is (i) required by law or the Rules of the Supreme Court, 401 (ii) necessary for law-enforcement purposes, or (iii) permitted by the court for good cause.

402 I. No fees shall be charged for filing or serving petitions pursuant to this section.

403 J. As used in this section:

404 "Copy" includes a facsimile copy; and

405 "Protective order" includes an initial, modified or extended protective order.

406 K. Upon issuance of a protective order, the clerk of the court shall make available to the petitioner
407 information that is published by the Department of Criminal Justice Services for victims of domestic 408 violence or for petitioners in protective order cases.
